American University of Health Sciences will be holding its first bi-annual Employer Panel at 1600 E. Hill St., Signal Hill, CA 90755 on Monday, March 13th, 2017 from 5:00 pm - 7:00 pm.

AUHS students and alumni will have the opportunity to meet and obtain career advice from a panel of representatives from DaVita, Salvation Army and Brand New Day. Job seekers will also have the opportunity to present their resumes and portfolios to employers.

“The purpose of the AUHS Employer Panel is to expose our students to local employers and also give employers the opportunity to meet our students and recent graduates,” said Chantal Jura, Director of Affiliations and Development, “Our students will be able to learn how Registered Nurses are hired across the board.”

AUHS is honored to have Mayor of Signal Hill, Lori Woods as a VIP guest. Her presence will enrich our student's experience at the Employer Panel and we appreciate her support.

AUHS is a private, for-profit, minority owned, minority serving, Christian-based university whose mission is to educate and equip students with life careers and to produce quality health care professionals for the community, the nation, and the world. It is a university where appreciation of life and one's spiritual reason for existence can be nurtured.

AUHS offers a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN), a Bachelor of Science in Pharmaceutical Sciences (BSPS) and a Master of Science in Clinical Research (MSCR).
